Dear Bettina,

Mail an P. Weitergeleitet. 20/1/16

I thought I should let you know that we have had provisional discussions with the consignors of the von Hessen breviary and they have indicated – given the fact that the Historisches Archiv has the sister manuscript and they appreciate how important the opportunity to reunite the two volumes would be – that they would consider the private sale of the manuscript through Christie's.

The basic terms proposed are as follows:

- An asking price of 500,000 Euro.
- You would have until the end of March 2016 to sign a contract formally committing you to the purchase of the breviary at the aforementioned price. You would then have a maximum of a year to pay in full.

I understand you may need some time to consider this proposal – do let me know if you have any further questions.

Best wishes,
Sophie

Dear Sophie,

the information and images of the breviary came through. Thank you very much!

I'm shure there will be more questions, but not at the moment.

Very happy New Year to you too. We will stay in contact.

Best wishes,

Bettina
